UC Green Network Position Description

Sustainability Fellows are ambassadors of environmentalism and sustainability to the Ursinus community. Fellows are passionate about work that makes a positive impact on the planet and our communities, as well as their own personal growth and professional development. Through this position, Fellows will develop critical thinking and leadership skills that will assist you in whatever you choose to do after your time at Ursinus.

Like all Sustainability Fellows, Green Network Fellows are expected to participate in a weekly 1-credit course, taught by the Director of Sustainability, participate in Sustainable Move-Out, and Office of Sustainability events and projects throughout the semester. All Fellowships are two semesters long. The Green Network Fellowship runs from late August through the end of the spring semester in May, or the length of one academic year.

What Does a UC Green Network Fellow Do?

Our UC Green Network Fellows plan events, activities, and volunteer opportunities for students across campus. An ongoing focus on this position has been outreach to Athletic teams on campus. Fellows must be organized, friendly, and enjoy working with other students. This position allows Fellows to network with staff and students, spread the word about sustainability. Careers in fields like education, non-profit work, event planning, and team management, all use skills that UC Green Network Fellows develop!

Requirements

- Interest in working with students across campus and sharing a love for the environment
- Willingness to learn from and collaborate with others
- There is no specific major requirement to be a UC Green Network Fellow!
- A rising sophomore, junior, or senior standing
- 2.5 GPA
- Available to volunteer during Earth Week in the Spring, and Sustainable Move-out in May
- Full-time student who will be enrolled at Ursinus for both the fall and spring semesters
